

14.9 Termination of Probation

14.9 Termination of Probation

The court may enter a written order terminating probation on finding that there is no further need for supervision, either at the end of the probationary term originally ordered or at any time during probation. G.S. 7B-2511. At the election of the court, an order may be entered in chambers based on a report of the juvenile court counselor or may be entered after notice and a hearing with the juvenile's attendance. Id. Termination of probation does not terminate the court's jurisdiction unless ordered by the court, or when statutory conditions ending jurisdiction are met. G.S. 7B-1601(b); see supra § 3.3, Jurisdiction. Counsel should therefore request that the court terminate jurisdiction as well as probation, which may be done by checking a box on the order terminating probation. See Form AOC-J-465 (Order to Terminate Supervision (Undisciplined/Delinquent)) (Apr. 2000).
